

What Sinclair is doing is basically a free, very negative ad for the Bush administration. How is this fair? How does this serve our democracy? Why shouldn't the Kerry/Edwards folks get equal time?